Washington Association of Building Officials
Bylaws

ARTICLE I
NAME AND OBJECTIVES

Section 1 Name

The organization shall be known as the Washington Association of Building Officials (WABO).

Section 2 Objectives

The association declares that the interest of all the people in the state is paramount in the promulgation and development of building and construction regulations and therefore adopts the following objectives:
1. To promote the health, safety and welfare of the general public with regard to buildings and construction;
2. To formulate building and construction standards and requirements, in terms of performance and nationally accepted standards;
3. To decrease the potentially adverse environmental effects and the development of public nuisances resulting from premature deterioration of new buildings;
4. To advise and inform the association’s members in regard to legislative programs relative to these objectives;
5. To advise and assist in the development, and administration of state and federal building regulations;
6. To research, develop, and publish educational materials and establish standards of performance of personnel engaged in the administration and enforcement of building regulations;
7. To preserve self-determination by local government consistent with these objectives; and
8. To do such other things as are incidental to or desirable for the attainment of these objectives.
ARTICLE II
MEMBERSHIP

Section 1  Active Membership

Active membership shall be restricted to a governmental jurisdiction, or departments thereof, located within the geographic limits of the state of Washington engaged in the administration or formulation of laws or ordinances related to building construction.

Section 2  Associate Membership

Associate membership is available to individuals, firms, associations, or others interested in the objectives of the association.

Section 3  Honorary Membership

Honorary membership may be bestowed, by vote of the voting representatives, upon individuals who have exhibited outstanding service to the association.

Section 4  Forfeiture of Membership

The executive board may declare a membership forfeited for either or both of the following reasons:

1. nonpayment of dues, after a six (6) month period of delinquency; and,
2. conduct, by a voting representative or their proxy, determined by the executive board to be adverse to the best interests of the association.

ARTICLE III
ACTIVE MEMBER VOTING REPRESENTATIVES

Section 1  Corporate Powers

All corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed under the direction of, the voting representatives and the Executive Board except as otherwise provided by the laws under which this corporation is formed or in the Articles of Incorporation.
Section 2  Voting Representatives

Each jurisdiction is entitled to have up to two active voting representatives. An active member shall, when admitted to membership, designate the individual(s) who will act as its voting representative(s) for the purpose of voting, other participatory activities and for committee membership. Voting representative(s) from the jurisdiction, or department thereof, shall be an administrative official engaged in the enforcement of building code regulations. Only active voting representatives may vote on association matters.

Section 3  Rules of Operation

The voting representatives and the officers shall, from time to time, at regular or special meetings, adopt rules for the operation of the association.

ARTICLE IV
EXECUTIVE BOARD

Section 1  Corporate Powers

The executive board shall exercise all corporate powers subject to the limitations of the laws of the state of Washington, the association articles of incorporation, bylaws and rules of operation between the regular or special meetings of the voting representatives.

Section 2  Composition

The executive board shall be composed of the officers and standing committee chairs. The WABO appointee to the Washington State Building Code Council (SBCC) shall be an ex-officio, non-voting member of the Executive Board. If the SBCC appointee is already an officer or standing committee chair, her/his standing on the Board will be determined by the elected position held. Up to three past presidents may serve as ex-officio members as approved by the executive board.

Section 3  Management and Program Contracts

The executive board shall have the authority to enter into contracts for the management and program services of an executive director and additional staff as approved by the voting representatives at a regular meeting. Contracts shall be reviewed annually by the executive board.
ARTICLE V
OFFICERS

Section 1 Officers

The officers of the association shall be the president, first vice president, second vice president and the immediate past president.

Terms of office shall be for one year. (Officers may be re-elected for one additional year.)

Section 2 Duties of President

The president shall serve as the chief elected officer of the association and shall preside at all meetings of the voting representatives and the executive board and shall be an ex-officio voting member of all committees.

The president shall serve as the chief spokesperson for the Association.

The president shall serve as official liaison to the Association of Washington Cities (AWC) and the Washington State Association of Counties (WSAC), delegating duties to members and staff as appropriate. The president shall assign liaisons to other associations and groups as deemed necessary.

The president shall review agendas and minutes from previous meetings prior to distribution.

Section 3 Duties of the First Vice President

The first vice president shall preside at all meetings of the voting representatives and the executive board in the event that the president is unable to attend.

The first vice president shall be responsible for monitoring and revision of the current adopted annual budget and preparation of the proposed annual budget for the following year.

Section 4 Duties of the Second Vice President

The second vice president shall preside at all meetings of the voting representative and the executive board in the event that the president and first vice president are unable to attend.
The second vice president shall serve as coordinator of professional development and related activities in conjunction with meetings.

The second vice president shall be responsible for the strategic plan.

Section 5  Duties of the Immediate Past President

The Immediate past president shall serve as chair of committees created to prepare proposed bylaws amendments.

The immediate past president shall provide new member orientations at regular meetings of the voting representatives.

The immediate past president shall serve as the nominating committee chair.

The immediate past president shall serve as a resource to officers and committee chairs.

ARTICLE VI
NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

Section 1  Nominations

Nominations for president, first vice president and second vice president shall be accepted in writing or from the floor during the regular meeting of the voting representatives preceding the annual business meeting of the voting representatives.

Nominations will be held open until the annual business meeting, at which time a final call for nominations will be held. Nominations will be closed following the final call for nominations.

Nominations for standing committee chairs shall be accepted in writing or from the floor during the regular meeting of the voting representatives preceding the annual business meeting of the voting representatives.

Nominations will be held open until the annual business meeting, at which time a final call for nominations will be held. Nominations will be closed following the final call for nominations.

Section 2  Elections
The election of the president, first vice president and second vice president and standing committee chairs shall be conducted during the annual business meeting of the voting representatives. A simple majority of the voting representatives present at the annual business meeting of voting representatives will be required for a candidate to be elected to office.

The newly elected officers, the immediate past president and the committee chairs shall take office before the conclusion of an annual business meeting of the voting representatives. With the election of a new president, the incumbent president will assume the position of immediate past president.

Section 3  Holding Office and Chairs, and Participation

The right to vote, hold office, or hold a committee chair shall be reserved to voting representatives.

Voting representatives, associate members, or their representatives; and honorary members are entitled to participate in association activities at regular or special meetings of the voting representatives and committee.

Section 4  Vacancies

Any vacancy occurring in the office of president, first vice president or second vice president shall be filled by nominations and special election at the next announced regular or special meeting of the voting representatives.

Any vacancy occurring in the position of immediate past president shall be filled by the then most recent previous past president who is still a voting representative until the next regular election.

Any vacancy in standing committee chairs shall be filled by nominations and special election at the next announced regular or special meeting of the voting representatives.
Section 5  Removal of Officers and Committee Chairs

The president, first vice president and second vice president may be removed from office by petition of a majority of the voting representatives present at two of the last three regular meetings. Nominations and a special election to fill any such vacancy shall occur at the same regular meeting as any removal occurs.

A standing committee chair may be removed from a chair by petition of a majority of the committee members present, and presented to the president and ratified by the voting representatives. Nominations and a special election to fill any such vacancy shall occur at the same regular meeting as any removal occurs.

ARTICLE VII
COMMITTEES

Section 1  Standing Committees

The standing committees are: certification and registration; technical code development; outreach services; government relations; finance, emergency management and education.

Section 2  Standing Committee Organization

The program of activities or charges of the standing committees shall be developed and submitted to the executive board for consideration and recommendation to the membership and approved in accordance with rules of operation approved by the voting representatives.

At the annual business meeting of the voting representatives, immediately following the election of the officers, the meeting shall be recessed for the organizational meeting of the standing committees which shall be conducted in accordance with rules established by the executive board.

The Standing Committee Chairs shall appoint one or more vice-chairs for their committee. The vice-chair may be any appointed member of the committee. The vice-chair will assume the duties of the Chair in the absence of the Chair in all committee activities. The vice-chair will not act on behalf of the Chair on the Executive Board.
Section 3 Standing Committee Participation

Participation on standing committees shall be by appointment. Appointment shall be open to any voting representative; associate member, or their representative, honorary member or jurisdictional employee authorized to serve by the jurisdiction.

Only voting representatives, or jurisdictional employees authorized to serve by the jurisdiction, or associate members, who are appointed members of a standing committee may vote on standing committees.

Section 4 Special Committee Organization

The president may establish special committees, designate the chairperson, appoint the members and assign the committee its charges. Such special committees shall be ratified by the voting representatives or the executive board.

ARTICLE VIII
MEETINGS

Section 1 Open and Executive Sessions

All regular or special meetings of the voting representatives, executive board and committees shall be open sessions except that the president may call for an executive session of the executive board to discuss management and/or contract matters. Any action by the executive board, resulting from any discussion during any executive session, shall be taken in open session.

Section 2 Annual Business Meeting of the Voting Representatives

One of the regular meetings of the voting representatives each year shall be known as the annual business meeting. The annual business meeting shall be held at a time and place fixed by the executive board.

Section 3 Regular Meetings of the Voting Representatives

Regular meetings of the voting representatives shall be held quarterly at a time and place fixed by the executive board.
Section 4  Special Meetings of the Voting Representatives

Special meetings of the voting representatives shall be held at the call of the president or upon the petition of ten (10) percent of the voting representatives.

Section 5  Meetings of the Executive Board

Regular or special meetings of the executive board shall be held at the call of the president or upon the petition of a simple majority of the executive board.

Section 6  Standing, and Special Committee Meetings

Meetings of standing and special committees shall be by call of their respective chair who shall render reports at each meeting of the voting representatives and at executive board meetings.

ARTICLE IX
FINANCES AND DUES

Section 1  Fiscal Year

The association fiscal year shall be July 1 to June 30.

Section 2  Financial Rules

The voting representatives shall adopt financial management rules consistent with prudent accepted financial management practices.

Section 3  Accounting

The executive board shall, through management contracts, provide for accounting, in conformance with generally accepted accounting principles, of all funds of the association.

The management contractor shall provide an annual report of accounting showing total association receipts and disbursements and the total cash and securities on hand for the fiscal year. The annual report of accounting is to be presented at the regular meeting following the end of the fiscal year or as otherwise requested after review by the finance committee. A copy of the annual report of accounting will be furnished to any member upon written request.
The management contractor shall make detailed expenditure and revenue reports of all financial transactions to the finance committee prior to executive board meetings.

Section 4  Dues Year

The association dues year shall be determined by the executive board.

Section 5  Active Member Dues

Active member (governmental jurisdiction or department thereof) annual dues shall be based on the population of the member’s jurisdiction (state, county, city or town) population as follows* and shall be recommended by the finance committee and approved by the executive board. County population shall be at the unincorporated population.

* See attached Annual Membership Dues Structure and Fee Schedule

Section 6  Benefits to Members

All members shall receive all association services.

ARTICLE X
QUORUM, PROXIES AND RULES

Section 1  Voting Representatives Meeting Quorum

A quorum for regular or special meetings of the voting representatives shall be a simple majority of the voting representatives present.

Section 2  Executive Board Meeting Quorum

A quorum for regular or special meeting of the executive board shall be a simple majority of the executive board members.

Section 3  Active Members Voting Representative Proxies

Voting representatives may designate in writing to the president an individual from the same jurisdiction or department involved in enforcement of building regulations to act as their proxy.
Section 4 Officers and Executive Board Members Proxies

Officers or executive board members may not be represented by proxies.

Section 5 Rules of Order

The rules for the conduct of association meetings and activities, not otherwise provided for herein, shall be Robert’s Rules of Order-Revised.

ARTICLE XI
AMENDMENTS

Section 1 Amendments

Proposed amendments to the bylaws must be submitted in writing to the chair of the bylaws committee. Proposed amendments will then be presented at the next regular meeting of the voting representatives for discussion and amendment. The resulting bylaws amendments and a written ballot shall be sent to all active member voting representatives within thirty (30) days of the regular meeting at which the amendments were considered; completed ballots must be returned to the bylaws committee chair through the association office within the time noted on the ballot.

A two-thirds majority vote of voting representatives voting shall be required for adoption of amendments. Adopted amendments shall take effect at the next regular meeting of the voting representatives.

ARTICLE XII
INDIVIDUAL BENEFIT

Section 1 Individual Benefit

No part of the net earnings, if any, of this association shall inure to the benefit of any member, representative or other individual; and no gain, profit or dividends shall ever be distributed to any member, representative or other individual of this association to inure to the benefit of any private person except to fund a foundation or corporation organized and operated for charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes.

(Revised 01/21/72, 04/11/75, 06/09/78, 03/05/82, 01/15/84, 09/11/84, 09/12/85, 05/14/87, 06/16/94, 10/22/98, 06/22/01, 01/11/02, 10/17/02, 09/23/10 and 02/27/12)
Washington Association of Building Officials
Annual Membership Dues Structure and Fee Schedule
Effective date: January 1, 2011

WABO Voting Member
Building Official (or designee) from governmental jurisdictions in Washington. Fees are based on population (county fees based on unincorporated population).

- Population under 50,000: $95.00
- Population 50,000 - 100,000: $185.00
- Population over 100,000: $275.00
- Government Employee: $45.00
  (working for a member jurisdiction)

Associate Member
Individuals, firms, associations, nonprofits, fire departments, fire districts, and state agencies or others that are interested in the mission and goals of WABO.

- Associate Member: $195.00
- Active Students: $45.00